

2018 UK Consumer Opportunities: The Under-50s

Table of Contents

Executive Summary 4

Wealthy 30-49s replaced by struggling households 5

Figure 1: Change in number of households by age group in each gross income quintile, thousands, 2011-16 5

Figure 2: Change in consumer spending by income quintile age group, %, 2011-16 5

Men lead rise of 'boomerang kids' phenomenon 6

Figure 3: Number of 18-29s by housing situation, millions, 2011 and 2016 6

Have UK under-50s really reached 'peak stuff'? 7

Figure 4: Total consumer spending by category by under-50s households, £bn, 2016 7

Figure 5: Change in consumer spending by under-50s 7

households by category, £bn, 2011-16 7

Under-30s left behind other groups in growth of 'fun' 8

Figure 6: Change in annual consumer spending on 'fun', £bn, 2011-16 8

Figure 7: Change in annual consumer spending on 'fun', adjusted for adults living with parents, £bn, 2011-16 8

Rent and higher prices mean under-30s' living standards fall 9

Figure 8: Change in real net income per household after rent payments, %, 2011-16 9

Housing & education swallow up more of under-30s budgets 10

Figure 9: Change in spending on major categories by under-30s, £bn, 2011-16 10

Under-30s try to eat more healthily but let down by treats 11

Figure 10: Change in consumer spending by under-30s on selected food categories, %, 2011-16 11

Millennials forced to adapt to nomadic lifestyle 12

Figure 11: Change in spending by under-30s on selected home-related categories, %, 2011-16 12

Younger consumers increasingly selective in leisure spend 13

Figure 12: Change in spending by under-30s on selected leisure categories, %, 2011-16 13

Under-30s opt for DIY on beauty and focus fashion spend 14

Figure 13: Change in spending by under-30s on selected fashion and personal care categories, %, 2011-16 14

Rising housing and care costs put heavy burden on 30-49s 15

Figure 14: Change in spending on major categories by 30-49s, £bn, 2011-16 15

Household spending hit by rents as interest boost fades 16

Figure 15: Change in spending by 30-49s on selected home-related categories, %, 2011-16
16

Travel, cars and pets win in battle for family leisure spend 17

Figure 16: Change in spending by 30-49s on selected leisure and travel categories, %, 2011-16
16 17

Health, care & beauty products are personal spend priorities 18

Figure 17: Change in spending by 30-49s on key personal care and fashion categories, %, 2011-16
18

Under-30s poised to see further slump in spending power 19

Figure 18: Forecast change in net income and spending by age group, nominal and real terms, %, 2016-2020
19

Under-50s see their real net incomes shrink 20

Figure 19: Estimated/forecast change in net income by household age group, % y-o-y, 2017 Q1-2020 Q4
20

Real spending by under-50s will flatline to 2020
21

Figure 20: Estimated/forecast change in consumer spending by household age group, % y-o-y, 2017 Q1-2020 Q4
21

Debt burden poses real risk to 30-49 households 22

Figure 21: Estimated debt as a percentage of household pre-interest net income, 2016 Q4
22

Recreation and culture spend set to lead under-50s growth 23

Figure 22: Top ten forecast real spending increases on major categories by income quintile age group, £bn, 2016-20
23

Household goods, alcohol and food will suffer worst declines 24

Figure 23: Top ten forecast real spending declines on major categories by income quintile age group, £bn, 2016-20 24

Recreation & culture to offer opportunities among under-30s 25

Figure 24: Forecast change in real spending on major categories by under-30s, £bn, 2016-20 25

Market opportunities: 30-49 4Q & 5Q recreation and culture 26

Market Opportunities: 30-49 4Q & 5Q clothing and footwear 27

Market Opportunities: 30-49 4Q and 5Q miscellaneous goods and services 28

Outlook for major under-50s focused UK retailers 29

Figure 25: Share of under-50s age groups in overall customer base for major UK retailers, February 2017
29

Where do these figures come from? 31

Figure 26: Sources of data in this report 31

Appendix 1: Definitions 32

Appendix 2: Methodology 34

Appendix 3: Forecast of real net income and consumer spending, full data 35

Figure 27: Forecast of real net income and consumer spending by age group, % change,
2017 Q1-2020 Q4 35